

United States European Command

BRIGADIER GENERAL ROGER L. BRAUTIGAN Director, Mobilization and Reserve Component Affairs

Brigadier General Roger L. Brautigan is the Director of Mobilization and Reserve Component Affairs, United States European Command, Stuttgart-Vaihingen, Germany. He assumed this position in October 1997.

Born in Portland, Oregon, December 26, 1945, General Brautigan is a distinguished military graduate of the University of Arizona and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Arizona and a Master's Degree from the University of the Pacific.

General Brautigan's military education includes the Army War College, Army Command and General Staff College, and the Armor, Infantry, and Adjutant General Officer Advanced Courses.

General Brautigan has served in a variety of command and staff positions in the continental United States, Vietnam, and Germany. His staff assignments include service as a Platoon Leader, 22nd Replacement Battalion, Republic of Vietnam; Training, Operations, and Battalion Executive Officer assignments with the 91st Training Division; Mobilization Plans Officer, Fort Ord; Inspector General, 125th Army Reserve Command; and Chief of Training and Chief of Operations for the Office of the Chief, Army Reserve, in the Pentagon; Senior Reserve Advisor to the Commanding General, United States Army Europe and Seventh Army. His command assignments include both company and battalion level commands while assigned to the 91st Training Division. Most recently, he commanded the 7th U.S. Army Reserve Command and the United States Army Europe Mobilization Support Center for Operation JOINT ENDEAVOR/GUARD. During Operation JOINT ENDEAVOR/GUARD, 19 of his 22 7th ARCOM units were mobilized/deployed in support of United States Army Europe and its major subordinate commands.

General Brautigan's awards include the Legion of Merit (with oak leaf cluster), the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal (with 3 oak leaf clusters), the Army Commendation Medal (with 3 oak leaf clusters), the Army Achievement Medal (with oak leaf cluster), various service and unit awards, and the Army General Staff Identification Badge.

He is married to the former Arvie Wohlman, and they reside in Stockton, California. They have one daughter, Julie, who is married and has one son.